

Declaration of withdrawal of order

I take note with the filling out of the form that:

- I have 14 days after the delivery to notify the Seller of the withdrawal, and that I have to return the product within 14 days of the notification.

- The webshop does not accept payment on delivery returns, these will be sent back to the Customer.

- The Seller is only obligated to refund the full purchase price if the returned paintings are undamaged – the webshop has the right to ask the Customer to compensate for the damage in case the products are not used as intended.
